Cute Christmas greetings

Palmyra-Eagle Area School District 2nd grade students recently helped create this billboard to spread holiday cheer. The kids designed gingerbread cookies that are personalized with photos of their faces.

On the cover

The Village of Palmyra kicked off its holiday season with the annual Lions Club Parade along Main Street on Dec. 2, followed by the tree lighting at the Turner Museum. The Grinch gets a sweet ride on a tractor in last year's parade. In Whitewater, the annual Holiday Parade of Lights was held Dec. 1. Last year's parade included this group spreading holiday cheer with parade attendees by giving out glow necklaces.

Santa rides in style

Santa and Mrs. Claus are shown riding in style in last year's Holiday Parade of Lights in the City of Whitewater. There are several holiday-related activities in Whitewater to ring in the Christmas season, including cookie decorating (right), with a variety of toppings available.

Merry Christmas to all!

Santa and Mrs. Claus wave to members of the Palmyra community in last year's Lions Club Christmas Parade. After the parade, there is a tree lighting ceremony at Turner Museum along with the singing of Christmas carols, hot chocolate and cookies.

These students in Ms. Bores' 4K class at Eagle Elementary School took on a special class project of sharing what gift (or two) they really hope to get for Christmas. While there are clearly a few trendy items among this crew – such as Pokéballs (or Pokémon Balls), speedboats and Barbie items – there is also a variety of other fun things the kids are hoping to receive.

Third graders share their Christmas wishes

Mrs. Andrysczyk's third grade class in the Palmyra-Eagle Area School District took some time to share what they hope to receive for Christmas this year. The class "has been doing well with good behavior and we have been working hard to improve our skills," according to Mrs. Andrysczyk. Here are the top items on the students' wish lists:

I would like an elf for the class this year.

I would like a Magic Mixie and a Dreamhouse.

Can I go on your sleigh to ride on?

I want an Elf on the Shelf and a Barbie Dreamhouse.

I want a Luigi figure toy.

I would like an Avatar Lego set.

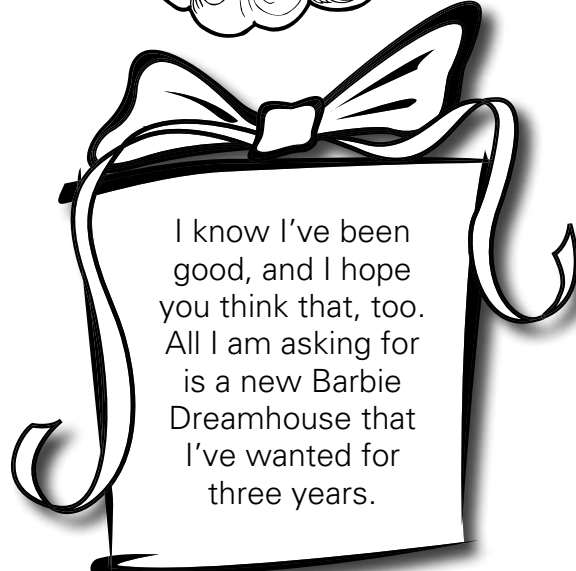

I would really love a new Playstation 5 Controller.

I would like a new paint set and a new Stichmallow.

I would also like a new Playstation 5 Controller.

I would like a new TV, and a new Playstation 4 Controller.

I know I've been good, and I hope you think that, too. All I am asking for is a new Barbie Dreamhouse that I've wanted for three years.

MAY THIS SEASON
BRING YOU PEACE, JOY,
HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

Merry Christmas!
