Waterford Easter Crosses

The message of Lent and Easter is the message of the Cross. It was upon the Cross that our Savior bled and died for our forgiveness and it was the empty Tomb of Easter that declared that Jesus had risen from the dead, securing for each of us eternal life.

The white crosses you see displayed throughout Waterford were placed there by your Christian neighbors who want you to know that they place their lives in Christ's hands and place their hope in His Cross and resurrection.

We wish you a blessed Holy Week and Easter and invite you to join us in worship at the cross and at the empty tomb.

Nurses

on the front lines for us...

It's been nearly four years since the pandemic began and through it all nurses have been there for us – delivering compassionate care while putting their own health at risk and holding the hands of those suffering through the darkest days of COVID-19. We owe a debt of gratitude to these Frontline Heroes who selflessly put their patients and their jobs ahead of their personal safety.

Southern Lakes Newspapers invites you to submit your stories and tributes about nurses who've been heroes to you in the past year. Perhaps it's the nurse at your regular doctor's office or the nurse who treated you in the emergency department – or maybe it's your spouse, parent or child whose courage and commitment have been an inspiration. The connection doesn't matter. What matters is we join together to honor the nurses who do so much for our community.

SUBMIT YOUR STORIES AND PHOTOS OF YOUR HEROES TO:

vicki@southernlakesnewspapers.com

PLEASE LIMIT YOUR TRIBUTES TO 500 WORDS OR LESS AND SUBMIT DIGITAL IMAGES AT THE HIGHEST RESOLUTION POSSIBLE.

Submissions are due by April 3 and will be published in our Special Section honoring All Nurses - our Frontline Heroes
