BRIGHTONWOODS ORCHARD & AEPPELTREOW WINERY

Brightonwoods Orchard and Aepeltreow Winery are located on the same property only 10 minutes from downtown! Its the perfect spot for a family outing, friends getaway, afternoon date, or even a bachelorette destination with a wine tasting! Brightonwoods Orchard is a family-run, no admission orchard that offers over 150 apple varieties, a cute store with more than just apples, a fun treehouse for the kids, and a chance to wander through their orchard and trails! Aepeltreow Winery and Distillery offers a rural and relaxed atmosphere where you can taste their creations and learn all about the process! 1072 288th Avenue; 262-878-3000; brightonwoodsorchard.com or 262-878-5345, aepeltreow.com

SENO K/RLT CONSERVANCY

Dr. Elvira Seno wished that her beloved tree farm would become a place where children and adults could learn about nature and forestry. Dr. Seno passed away in 1996, but saw her dream fulfilled. Seno K/RLT Conservancy maintains 127 acres of woodlands, prairie, fields, and wetlands and is open from dawn to dusk with 2.8 miles of walking trails. The Woodland

Center is the home base for a land trust whose mission includes providing natural resources education opportunities, including sustainable forestry, land management, and land conservation. The restored barn and pavilions on the property are popular for weddings, showers, and events. 3606 Dyer Lake Rd., 262-529-3222, senokrit.org

RICHARD BONG STATE RECREATION AREA

Richard Bong State Recreation Area offers a vast array of possible activities: hiking, running, bicycling, swimming, canoeing, fishing, camping, picnicking, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, or snowmobiling. There is also an area where visitors can fly hang gliders, ultra-light aircraft, hot air balloons. model airplanes, and rockets. Areas to train dogs or falcons, ride ATVs, go horseback riding, and hunt in season are also available. Unique TO BURLINGTON

BROWNS LAKE AQUADUCKS

The Brown Lake Aquaducks perform waterski shows at Einer Fisher Park on Highway 11 in Burlington every Thursday evening from Memorial Day through Labor Day. The junior show starts at 5 PM with the main show following at 6:30 PM. All shows are free and open to the public.

BTOWN SOUNDS

After visiting the weekly Farmers Market in Wehmhoff, enjoy a free summer concert series every other Thursday from 6:30–8:30pm at Echo Park! Bring your own chairs & blankets or sit down by the stage in the bench seating! Pack your own picnic or purchase food & beer!

THE LOOP COMMONS

Experience collaborative workspaces, equipped photo and podcast studios, private offices, and a spacious coworking area! You can also rent the space as the historic building provides a unique backdrop for any occasion—wedding shower, birthday party, corporate function, etc! For a different kind of challenge, explore CLIMB @ The Loop, an indoor bouldering gym suitable for all ages and skill levels.

MALT HOUSE THEATRE

The historic Malt House Theater is home to The Haylofters, one of Wisconsin's oldest continuing community theaters. The group was founded in 1932, when its first home was an old barn near downtown Burlington. When shows were presented on a small stage built into the hayloft! Since 1954, the company has presented an annual season in its present location!

LOGIC PUZZLE, SPINNING TOP & YO-YO MUSEUMS

Founded in 1976, these museums offer classes, workshops, resources and activities for educators, families & groups with a specialty gift & toy shop has more than 100 different hands-on brainteaser and mechanical puzzles, books, educational materials, 400+ tops and yo-yos for sale!

ROOTS OF FREEDOM: WI UNDERGROUND RAILROAD

The Underground Railroad was the first “railroad” to reach the Wisconsin Territory. Burlington visitors are surprised at the rich history that includes multiple way-stations and pioneer residents who were active abolitionists, participating both directly and indirectly to help runaway slaves on their way to freedom. The Burlington Historical Society has mapped out many of the way-station locations and offers the Bur Spur Roots of Freedom self guided tour. This tour includes over 25 stops in all: a City of Burlington Walking Tour and a driving tour that encompasses Rochester and Spring Prairie.

DIA DE LOS MUERTOS SPOOKY CITY/COFFIN RACES

Experience Burlington also recognizes the importance of celebrating Burlington's rich cultural diversity with the new Day of the Dead/Dia de los Muertos celebration which takes place the last weekend in October. This event is held in conjunction with the wildly popular Spooky City event and coffin races. This street party not only adds vibrancy to the community, but fosters understanding and appreciation for different traditions.

Burlington Liars' Club Bar

BURLINGTON Liars' Club

It all started with a lie. Mannel Hahn was a Burlington local and free-lance writer for Milwaukee Journal and the Chicago Daily News. In 1929 when news was sparse, he concocted a fantasy of the non-existent meeting of a "Liars' Club" then sent it onto the papers. His article wasn't a total lie- Every morning a group of people met in the Burlington police station and swapped stories as telling "tall tales" was their daily pastime. One year later they were contacted by the newspaper to see who was the new winner- it was then they knew the club had to become official. By 1933, the organization claimed to have sorted through 1,500 lie entries! To this day, The Liars Club of Burlington still reviews lies sent in from all over the world & announces the winner on New Years Day! Burlington Liars' Club is also an upscale bar & lounge located above The Coffee House at Chestnut & Pine which pays homage to Burlington's fun history! Stop in for a visit!
