Editor's note: Valedictorian and Salutatorian selection was as of May 16. While unlikely to change, the awards were pending final grades on June 4.

Conference champs!

With a sweep of East Troy last October, the Delavan-Darien girls volleyball team clinched the school's first-ever conference title, winning the Rock Valley Conference-Valley Division. With a team-first attitude this year, the Comets saw everyone contribute in the contest and also honored seniors Taylor Holden, Addison Stallings, Mackenzie Doerksen and manager Kylene Yartey. Members of the team, front row from left, are: Doerksen, Peyton Gehl, Delaney Stallings, Lacey Duckworth, Jaelyn Katzenberger; back row, Yartey, coach Monica Damrow, Elizabeth Zweifel, Mackenzie Struck, Addison Stallings, Mia Wolfer, Janelle Damrow, Morgan Weiss, Holden and coach Haley Mueller.

ASHLEY DUCHEMIN Graduation 2025

A homecoming treat

Delavan-Darien High School got a little extra treat at Homecoming this year, as the school held a free pig roast before the annual contest. Less than a month later, the seniors on the Comets football team added a run in the WIAA Division 4 playoffs, upsetting Kettle Moraine Lutheran in the first round before falling to eventual state champion Racine St. Catherine's.
