Children's scavenger hunt

Thursday, Aug. 14, 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Youth ages 3 to 12 are invited to participate in the Scavenger Hunt.
Starting at 10 a.m. at the ticket gates, a clue sheet will be handed out and your journey begins! Follow the clues, get your sheet stamped at each building/barn, and at the conclusion you will receive a goodie bag!

The activity ends at 2:30 p.m. so there is still plenty of time to enjoy the fair. If you have trouble figuring out a clue, just ask at one of the stops.

Some of last year's clues were:
"Ewe" will love our new pens".
"Come see Thumper". "Twine, old iron and loud pops."

Don't miss out on the fun – it's a great way to learn about all the fair has to offer!

Fun at the Fair

Thousands of people visited the 2024 Kenosha County Fair, clockwise from top: Children sit aboard the Dragon Wagon ride; Lila Harju, 7, of Pleasant Prairie, flies into the air on a bungee cord; Harper Rigert, 6, of Bristol, enjoys herself in the grain box; Olivia Balding, 13, and her cousin, Johnny, 5, both of Trevor, look for a bumper car to crash into; A dog from the Canine Stars leaps off of a platform and into a portable pool.

Billingsley crowned 2025 Fairest of the Fair

By Jason Arndt
STAFF WRITER

After being selected last fall, Kaelie Billingsley, of Bristol, said she was looking forward to serving as ambassador for the 2025 Kenosha County Fair. The 2024 Westosha Central High School graduate succeeds Karina Cain, whose term concluded in January.

Billingsley, daughter of Eric and Shelly, began her tenure following Cain's appearance at the Wisconsin State Fairest of the Fairs convention.

She will now reign over the 2025 Kenosha County Fair before representing the fair at the 2026 state convention.

"I am looking forward to seeing all the people in the community, the parades, and the events," Billingsley said last fall. "I have always been so excited for the fair and it's so exciting to be the ambassador."

She was selected among three finalists with the other top two being Fair Royalty, Jayden Eisenbraun from Paddock Lake and Salem Lakes resident Alexander Hannah.

Billingsley will attend the University of Wisconsin-Platteville where she will study animal science with hopes of becoming a large animal veterinarian.

Urged to run

Billingsley exhibited several animal projects, including poultry, pigs and swine and rabbits, in her 4-H career.

"The fair is always such a great memory. I always have great memories of showing my animals at the fair," she said. "It has been such a large part of my life since I was little. It feels like my home away from home. I stay here the whole week... it's such a great place to be."

Despite her passion for the Kenosha County Fair, she was initially hesitant to apply for the Fairest of the Fair until she received encouragement from her mother.

"My mom was very persistent that I run," she said. "She was very motivational for me to get out of my comfort zone and to run for something that I am passionate about."

During the application process, and the coronation ceremony, Billingsley said her family and friends offered overwhelming and unconditional support.

Shelly believed the Fairest of the Fair ceremony would help Kaelie gain more confidence.

"She is not very big on public speaking in front of a group of people, but she was really able to shine today and I knew she would do very well," Shelly said.

Some rattled nerves

Kaelie acknowledged the process brought some anxiety considering those vying for Fairest of the Fair. But, in the end, she was able to capture the crown.

"It was so exciting and a little nerve-racking," she said.

Shelly said she knew each competitor and was aware the selection process would be difficult for the panel of judges.

"They are all three great kiddos," she said. "It was a tough competition and we were rooting for her all week, but we knew it would be a tough decision between the three of them."

Shelly said Kaelie's new role would help her succeed in the field of animal science.

"She is going to see a lot of different people (as a veterinary), so I am trying to get her started a little early," said Shelly.

She also believes her daughter developed a passion for animals while exhibiting at the Kenosha County Fair.

"She has been here for years and I think that is how she wanted to become a veterinarian because of her experiences showing all different animals," Shelly said.

Brooklyn Schultz shows '24 grand champion steer

By Jason Arndt
STAFF WRITER

Brooklyn Schultz, of Brighton, had reasons for optimism about entering her steer in the 2024 Kenosha County Fair even though he didn't have much experience in the show ring.

She spent nearly a year working with Hawkeye in the barn, with help from family, before presenting the eventual grand champion.

"I am so thankful for my support team," Schultz said last fall. "Winning is just amazing to me because you put a lot of work into it."

Schultz received Hawkeye, a 1,411-pound crossbred, in October of 2023.

She had plenty of help from her family, including parents Robert and Joni, along with sister Jordyn, 23, and brother, Jace, 11.

Jordyn presented a grand champion steer in 2017.

"It feels good, we have been working together all summer and now we got my brother in it," said Brooklyn, whose brother showcased a reserve grand champion hog.

Since receiving Hawkeye, Brooklyn hadn't presented the steer at any other events.

Despite his inexperience, he remained relaxed with the exception of a brief moment in the show ring.

"We didn't take him to any jackpot shows or anything and when people started clapping, he got a little freaked out," Brooklyn said.

"But I managed to keep him calm. The more you work with a steer, it gets a lot easier for them to trust you."

She learned about Hawkeye's personality, including his affectionate manner, when they worked together.

"He is a funny guy. He is a lick because he loves licking you," she said. "He has an awesome personality."

She decided to call him Hawkeye because of a character depicted in the Marvel Comics series.

"Hawkeye is my superhero. I worked with him all the time and I had a lot of faith in that steer," Brooklyn said.

She said several steers in the show ring last year were equally impressive, each possessing distinct qualities.

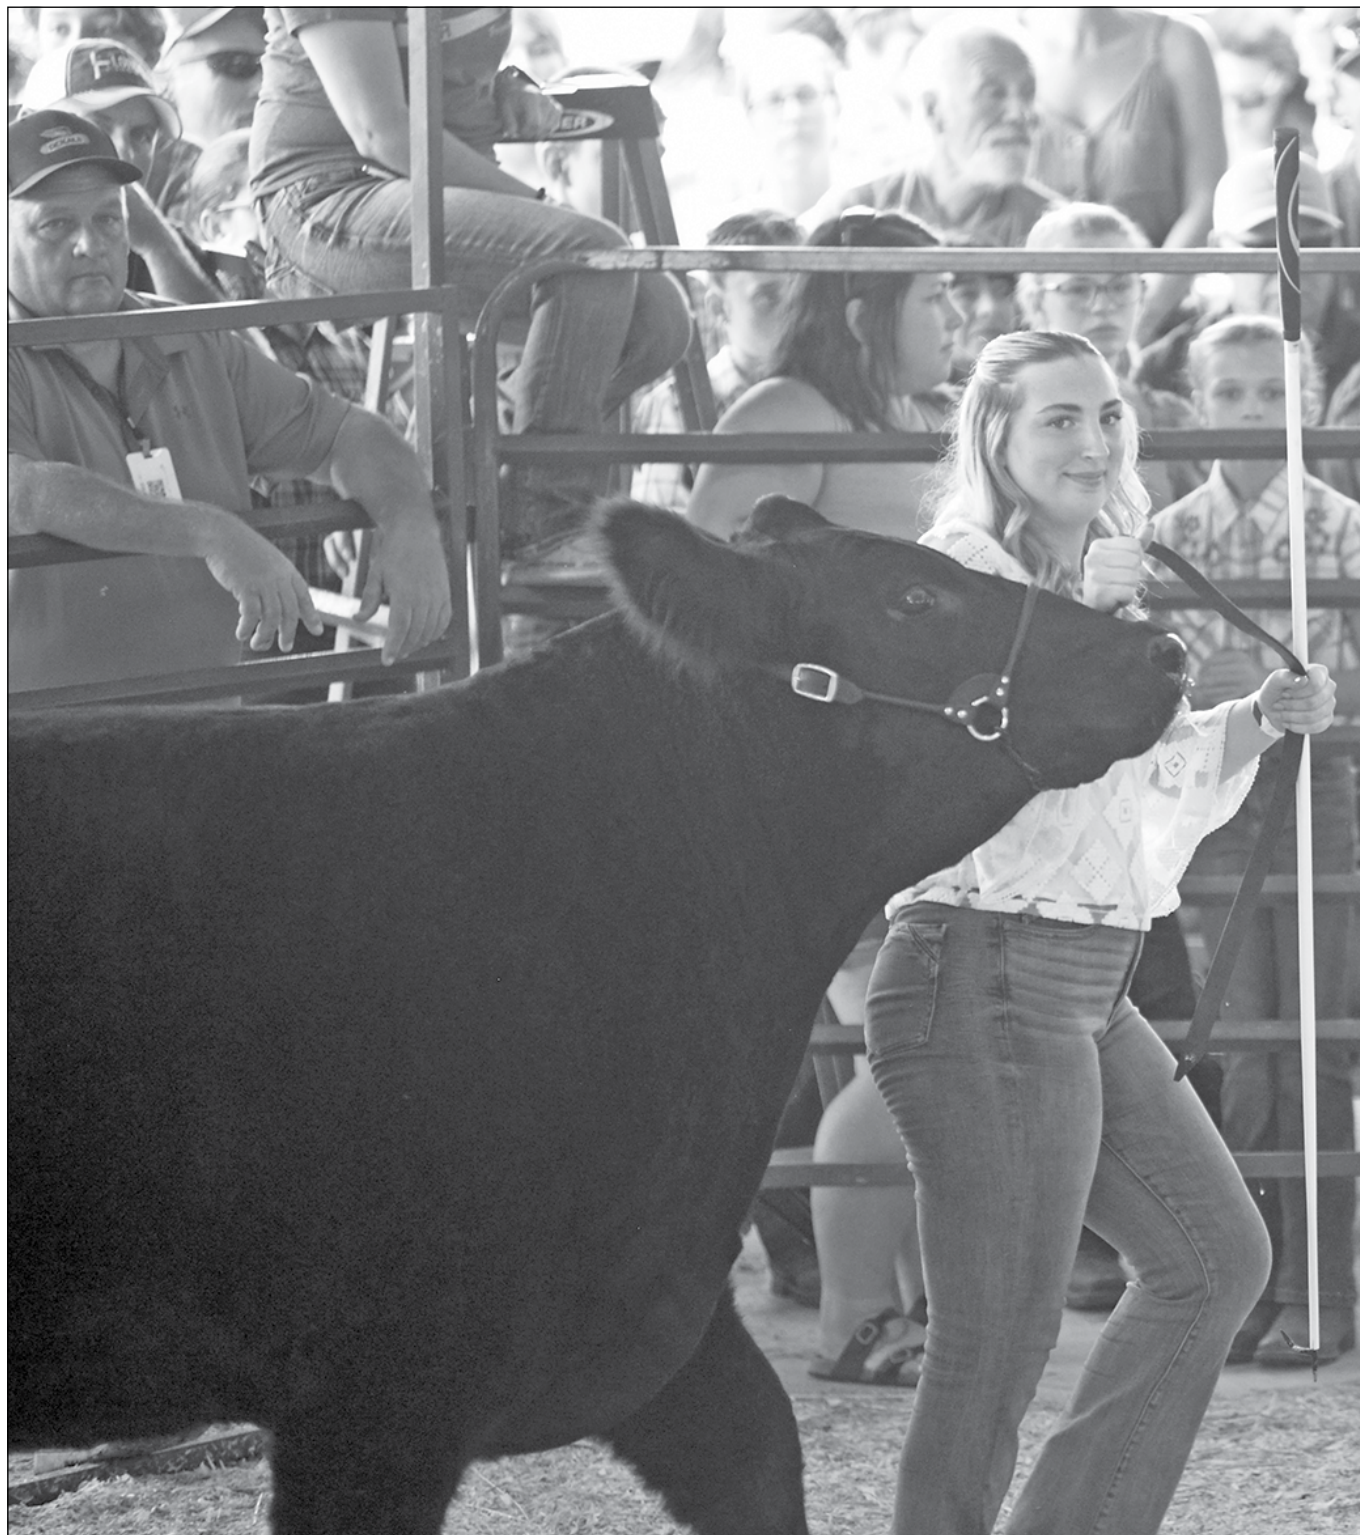

"There were some pretty good steers,"

Brooklyn said. "I didn't imagine winning, but I had faith coming in."

Outside of the show ring, she said she enjoys the camaraderie at the Kenosha County Fair, where she often meets with other exhibitors and bolsters bonds with her family.

"They all help me and I help them,"

Brooklyn said. "Coming to the fair and seeing everyone have a good time is just awesome."
